Edwin A. Abbey, the American artist, has been elected a fellow of the Societe des Beaux Arts de Paris as a reward for his exhibition in this year's spring salon.

M. Paul Sabatier, the French author and authority on the subject of St. Francis of Assisi, lives in Assisi the greater part of the year. He is greatly interested in the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals.

The well known Berlin sculptor Walter Schott is working on a statue of the emperor for the facade of the new Berlin Academy of Arts. It will represent him as a Roman emperor after the style of the baroque period of Louis XIV.

Professor Alfred John Church in his "Memoirs of Men and Books" gives the remarkable record of having reviewed 40,000 books and written seventy. Professor Church has been closely associated with the Spectator, and he was one of the oldest friends of the late Richard Holt Hutton.

State Lines.

In 1908 there was not a foot of railroad track in Colorado. Only one county remains without a railroad.

In Oregon now a candidate for public office cannot ask a friend to vote for him, cannot treat a constituent on election day, cannot give a campaign button to his friend, cannot say untruthful things about his opponent.

Minnesota is just fifty years old, and its development during this period has been marvelous. During the half century the population of the state has grown from 150,000 to 2,000,000. The wealth of its people was approximately $30,000,000 fifty years ago, and the assessed valuation of their property now is $1,000,000,000.

A Fishmonger.

Mrs. Jones often declared that she really enjoyed a little chat with their fish dealer because he was a man of such original ideas, but one day, says London Opinion, she returned from market somewhat puzzled by his remarks.

"I said to him, just in the way of conversation," declared Mrs. Jones, "that I had heard that a man becomes like that with which he most associates."

"That's ridiculous," Mrs. Jones' he answered. "I've been a fishmonger all my life and can't swim a yard."

The Skeeters Return.

Nighttime, and the skeeters come. Round and round they're winging. Howl! Where are they coming from? "B-a-a-a-a," the skeeters say. Bite all night and sleep all day. Never can keep them away—Not smoke of kerosene, either. Even nip you through a screen.

Two Sides.

She—If a man loves his wife as much as she loves him he will stop wasting his money on cigars if she asks him.
He—Yes, but if his wife loves him as much as she ought to love a man who loves her enough to stop it if she asks him she won't ask him.—Puck.

Love Is Blind, but Not Deaf.

She smiles—my darling smiles and all the world is filled with light. She laughs—like the bird's sweet call. In meadows fair and bright. She weeps—the world is cold and gray; Rain clouds shut out the view. She sings—softly steal away. And wait till she gets through.

Saw Her Twice.

Tom—It was a case of love at first sight with me.
Jack—Then why didn't you marry her?
Tom—Oh, I saw her again on several occasions.—Chicago News.

Unreceptive.

Little words of sage advice. Always sound most awful nice. When it's up to you to utter them, but when it's yours to hear something of the kind, oh, dear. How you mutter a word of reply.

Knew His Business.

Charley Loveday—Um—ah—er! He, he!
Jeweler to his assistant—Bring that tray of engagement rings here, Henry.
—Spare Moments.

Favoritism.

Why may frail blossoms, to delight the eye,
Borrow rich colors from the sun on high,
While all accorded to superior man,
Is sunburn, freckles or unsightly tan?
—Atlanta Constitution.

Why Not?

Settlement Worker—And they take a tenth of your earnings?
Factory Girl (aged twelve)—Yes'm, and they'd take a twentieth if they dared.—Lippincott's Magazine.

The Tactful Lamp.

In the parlor there were three—
Girl, the parlor lamp and he.
Two is company no doubt;
That is why the lamp went out.

A Linguist.

Harker—Great linguist, isn't he?
Barker—You bet. He can talk in baseball, college and auto.—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Apportioning the Year.

Now strolls the youth beside the sea,
No longer grimly thrifty.
For just two weeks' vacation he
Must save up coin for fifty!

More of It.

"Yes, he says she's worth her weight in gold."
"It's a pity she ain't a little fatter."

Again.

Once more we're
Sitting out of nights,
Acquiring large
Mosquito bites.

ABOUT THE STATE

Pennington & Butler of Plattsburg, N. Y., have been awarded the contract for building the girls' dormitory for Troy Conference academy, Poultry, and work will be begun at once.

R. W. Bishop, patent attorney of Washington, D. C., reports the issue of a patent on a power-transmitting mechanism to G. O. Grady of Windsor; and one on a height-measuring apparatus to W. H. Johnson of Brandon.

Rooms on the first, second and third floors of South hall at St. Johnsbury academy are to be finished for the accommodation of out-of-town students, and the dormitory is to be placed in the charge of two men teachers.

While fishing for eels in White River, H. K. Goodwin of South Royalton, caught a snapping turtle that weighed thirteen and one-half pounds and measured thirteen inches from tip to tip. On his shell was plainly marked, "A. P. A. D. '91."

Admirers of the Nutting pictures will mourn the loss of the old willow, said to be the largest in the state, and the typical elm at North Danville, made familiar by Mr. Nutting's photographs which were injured by Sunday's storm, the elm being blown down and the willow losing a large limb.

Thirty residents of South Royalton were poisoned Saturday and Sunday. Some of them were very dangerously ill, and all required a physician to relieve them of an acute pain and vomiting. It was found to be caused by eating new cherries that had recently been sold to dealers there. All but two or three were recovering the Monday following.

Estate in Litigation Many Years.

E. W. Huntley of Danbury, is looking after matters connected with closing the estate of the late Samuel Somerville. The estate has been tied up in a lawsuit since the death of Mr. Somerville several years ago.

A few years ago Mr. Somerville sold his farm to John S. Wilkins for $6,000, the deed being filed in the Capital Savings bank in escrow with certain conditions, which were to be fulfilled before Mr. Wilkins could have the deed of the property. These were not carried out, and Mr. Somerville then sold the farm to Mark Mears, who represented another company desiring to work the talc mines on the farm.

Mr. Wilkins brought suit. The case was in county and supreme court several times and a year ago the supreme court by its opinion for Mr. Wilkins, who did not at that time have money to pay for the farm, gave him until November 1 of last year to settle for the property. This he failed to do and the deal was closed with Mr. Mears. Mr. Mears paid $2,500 down on the farm. Beside this the estate received a small amount which Mr. Huntley would not make public. The farm has cost Mr. Mears about the $6,000. Now that the suit is straightened out Mr. Somerville's estate can be settled.

Worked Fraud in Brandon.

A man who signed himself E. A. Ohier was canvassing the town the latter half of May and, apparently got good pay for his time, says the Brandon Union, for in return for the $150 which he collected from each person who bit he gave nothing but a receipt. The receipt is valuable as a souvenir, as it is a glaring bit of proof of fraud.

The man claimed to be canvassing for a magazine, yet the receipt does not hint whether the owner had paid for a magazine or a horse and carriage. The price was left blank and was filled in with pencil, and not always for the amount. The receipt reads: "The American Publishing Co., guarantees each subscriber a decorated cottage dinner set with an eighteen months' subscription. The premium will be given entirely free with the first number. The address is simply New York city and address."

That first number, with which the cottage dinner set is coming, being overdue and not having yet arrived some of the subscribers have written to New York city and to Boston, but the postmasters of those cities have returned the letters for better decoration.

COMPLETE PLANS.

Methodists of St. Johnsbury to Have 10 Days' Session.

Lyndonville, July 13.—The annual Bible school and camp meeting for the St. Johnsbury district of the Methodist Episcopal church and will be held at the camp ground here beginning Thursday, August 6, and continuing 10 days. Among the speakers is John Galbraith, D. D., superintendent of the Boston district of the New England conference. Rev. J. M. Frost of St. Johnsbury will conduct morning classes and Miss Ruth G. Barr will give a series of Bible readings. Rev. William Shaw of Enosburg Falls formerly pastor here, will give a course of lectures.

Best the World Affords.

"It gives me unbounded pleasure to recommend Bucklen's Arnica Salve," says J. W. Jenkins of Chapel Hill, N. C. "I am convinced it's the best salve the world affords. It cures a felon on my thumb, and it never fails to heal every sore, burn or wound to which it is applied. 25c at the Red Cross Pharmacy, Rickert & Wells' drug store."

DOCTOR'S LIFE IN DANGER.

Rutland Hack Driver Tries to Kill Him During Insanity.

Rutland, July 13.—Armed with a double-barreled shotgun and threatening to kill Dr. Clarence F. Ball, health officer, William Cox, a hack driver, went to the home of the doctor Friday night and attempted to gain admittance. He was preceded by his two frightened children, who warned Dr. Ball so that he was prepared and the man was not admitted.

A few days ago Cox's child, Viola, died of spinal meningitis. Dr. Ball ordered the body buried immediately, but this Cox refused to do. A public funeral was held, and Dr. Ball complained to State Atty. R. A. Lawrence. The funeral was largely attended, school children acting as bearers.

Saturday when Cox heard that Dr. Ball had seen the state attorney he loaded his shotgun and started for the Ball home. His wife attempted to stop him, but was pushed aside.

When Cox's children warned him Dr. Ball locked the doors and telephoned to police for assistance. Cox was overpowered after a hard fight and was locked up at the city hall. It is believed that the circumstances connected with the death of his child have brought on temporary insanity.

THREE-CORNERED FIGHT.

Lawyer Parker at Brattleboro Also Out For Legislature.

Brattleboro, July 13.—An interesting development in Brattleboro politics took place Saturday when lawyer Herbert G. Parker announced himself a candidate for representative. Lyman E. Holden and William Fanning are also candidates, so a three-cornered fight is assured.

Mr. Parker is a son of Daniel M. Parker, a well-known farmer and is 35 years old. He was admitted to the bar in 1893 and was elected state attorney in 1895. He is senior member of the law firm of H. G. and F. E. Parker.

LIBEL FOR DIVORCE.

ELMER E. CAMPBELL, STATE OF VERMONT, vs. ARTHUR G. CAMPBELL, COUNTY OF WAVEREN.

In County Court, September Term, 1908. Whereas, Elmer E. Campbell, of the County of Washington, has this day filed in the office of the Clerk of said Court heretofore for divorce against Arthur G. Campbell, a party unknown, setting forth in substance that the said Arthur G. Campbell, in the County of Washington, and State of Vermont, on the 24th day of September, A. D. 1908, that she on her part had faithfully kept the marriage covenant, and performed all the duties appertaining thereunto, but that the said Arthur G. Campbell, during said cohabitation, had treated the said Elmer E. Campbell, with intolerable severity, using of sufficient pecuniary and physical ability, had, without cause, grossly, wantonly and cruelly refused and neglected to provide suitable maintenance for the said Elmer E. Campbell, and praying that, for the causes aforesaid, the Court would grant her a divorce from the said Arthur G. Campbell.

And whereas, it is made to appear that the said Arthur G. Campbell, resides and is without this State, where service of the process of this Court cannot be made upon him, therefore it is ordered that the said Arthur G. Campbell be given notice of the pendency of said libel, given opportunity to make defence therein and summoned to appear and make answer, thereto before the Honorable County Court next to be held at Montpelier, within and for the County of Washington and State of Vermont, on the second Tuesday in September, A. D. 1908, together with this order, in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at City of Barre, in the County of Washington, and State of Vermont, for three weeks successively, the last of which publications shall be at least six weeks prior to the said second Tuesday in September, A. D. 1908, which shall be deemed sufficient notice to the said Arthur G. Campbell.

ESTATE OF HENRY WATKINS.

STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court, County of Washington, held at Montpelier, in and for said District, on the 27th day of June A. D. 1908.

An instrument purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Henry Watkins, late of the City of Barre, in said district, deceased, was presented to the Court for Probate. It is ordered by said Court that all persons concerned therein be notified to appear at a session of said Court to be held at the City of Barre, on the 17th day of July, A. D. 1908, and show cause, if any they may have, against the probate of said instrument; and for that purpose it is further ordered, that notice of this order, together with a copy of the said instrument, be published in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the City of Barre, in said district, previous to said time appointed for the holding of said Court.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicle.

Frederick Mannell, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicle, April 6, '06, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead, and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicle works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicle destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Starts falling hair at once and a new growth. Sold in stamps for sample to The Herpicle Co., Detroit, Mich. Two stamps—50 cents and $1.00.
